The screenshot shows the Rice Online website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'RICE ONLINE' logo and links for 'Market Report', 'Quotes', 'Price Charts', 'USDA Information', and 'Features'. Below the navigation is a large image of a rice field. On the right side, a 'Market Report' pop-up is visible, titled 'U.S.D.A. World Market'. It includes a table with columns for 'World Market Price', 'This week', 'Last week', '1 Year Ago', 'LDP', and '2010 Loan Value Factors'. The table lists prices for Long Grain, Medium Grain, and Short Grain. Below the table, there's a 'Posting' section with a table listing various rice grades and their prices.
